Involves Donald Trump, Eric, Don Jr.

Republican committees spend more than $1 million at Trump properties

B Reported

Both NOTUS and CREW tally FEC filings and largely agree. The FEC filings were not opened here. Eric and Don Jr. are listed under the ledger's rule for payments to the Trump Organization, which the president owns through a trust his children manage and which his two eldest sons run (CNN; AFP).

WHAT HAPPENED

Political committees pay the Trump Organization when they hold events at Trump's clubs and hotels. According to NOTUS, Republican committees reported spending more than $1 million at Trump properties in the first nine months or so of the second term, based on FEC filings. CREW's separate count through mid-2025 found $931,129.

The Republican National Committee accounted for most of it, including about $307,000 for rental and catering at Trump National Doral on May 2, 2025 and about $193,000 at Mar-a-Lago on March 5. MAGA Inc., the main pro-Trump super PAC, spent about $43,000, and dozens of House Republicans' campaigns paid smaller amounts. Roughly 96 percent of the money went to Trump's Florida properties.

The RNC says the spending complies with federal law and reflects where its donors want to gather.

POTENTIAL VIOLATION

No legal question has been raised by anyone with standing or expertise in the sources reviewed, so this field is left blank rather than supplied by the ledger.

THEIR RESPONSE

The RNC says the events comply with federal law and are held at Trump properties because that is where donors, members and grassroots want to be.
