Involves Donald Trump, Eric, Don Jr.

Secret Service spending at Trump properties

C Alleged

The payments come from Secret Service records obtained by CREW under FOIA and linked on its site. The records themselves were not opened here, so this rests on one organization's reading. Eric and Don Jr. are listed under the ledger's rule for payments to the Trump Organization, which the president owns through a trust his children manage and which his two eldest sons run (CNN; AFP).

$100,000 estimated

CREW's tally of Secret Service lodging payments to Trump properties in the first months of the second term, from records obtained under FOIA. More than $50,000 went to Trump National Doral. CREW excluded a $67,000 Las Vegas payment it could not tie to a Trump property, and says most international travel is missing from the records.

WHAT HAPPENED

When the president or his family travel, the Secret Service travels with them, and when they stay at Trump properties the government often pays the family's businesses for agents' rooms.

Records the Secret Service released to CREW under the Freedom of Information Act show nearly $100,000 in lodging payments to Trump properties in the first months of the second term. More than $50,000 went to Trump National Doral near Miami, $14,000 to Trump's Las Vegas hotel, and smaller amounts elsewhere, including a $1,625 charge that CREW, going by location and timing, ties to Lara Trump's protection near the Westchester golf club. CREW says most international trips, including Eric's and Don Jr.'s, are missing from the records.

By CREW's count, Trump spent 191 of his first 512 days in office at properties he profits from, including 102 visits to Mar-a-Lago.
