WHAT HAPPENED

Don Jr. sits on the board of BlinkRx, a privately held company that works with drugmakers. The Wall Street Journal reported in October 2025 that before the White House unveiled TrumpRx, its site for discounted drugs, a BlinkRx representative told a drug company that BlinkRx could be involved in running it.

The Journal also reported BlinkRx planned a December 2025 summit for drugmakers whose schedule listed meetings with Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr., Medicare chief Mehmet Oz and FDA Commissioner Marty Makary, the officials who regulate those companies.

Don Jr. called the reporting an innuendo smear, BlinkRx said no one would pitch services at the summit, and the White House denied any special relationship. No federal contract or decision benefiting BlinkRx has been documented.

POTENTIAL VIOLATION

No legal question has been raised by anyone with standing or expertise in the sources reviewed, so this field is left blank rather than supplied by the ledger.

THEIR RESPONSE

Don Jr. called the reporting an "innuendo smear." BlinkRx told the Journal no company would pitch services at the summit. The White House denied any special relationship with BlinkRx.
