Net proceeds to DT Marks SC LLC from new members' capital contributions and the sale of Class C units of Stablecoin Holdco LLC, read directly from Trump's annual disclosure for 2025 (Schedule 1, line 114), also reported by Fortune and IANS. Fortune separately reports about $263 million in proceeds tied to the Aryam sale, which matches this line plus the $65.6 million WLF Holdco equity sale; the filing does not name the buyer. Stablecoin Holdco LLC's own 2025 net operating income was $8,326,828 (Schedule 1, line 204.1); DT Marks SC owns 38.25% of it. That is not added to the amount.

WHAT HAPPENED

Trump's 2025 financial disclosure lists $196.875 million in net proceeds to a Trump entity, DT Marks SC LLC, from new members' capital contributions and the sale of Class C units of Stablecoin Holdco LLC (Schedule 1, line 114), as Fortune and IANS reported. The filing lists DT Marks SC's stake in Stablecoin Holdco, a Miami stablecoin venture, at 38.25 percent (Fortune put it at 38.5 percent), and the venture's own 2025 net operating income at $8,326,828 (Schedule 1, line 204.1), which is not Trump's share. The filing does not say who bought the units.

Fortune separately ties about $263 million in proceeds to the sale of a stake to Aryam, the Abu Dhabi fund backed by UAE national security adviser Sheikh Tahnoon. That figure equals this line plus a separate $65.6 million equity sale (see the Aryam entry), though the filing does not name the buyer.

The family's best-known stablecoin is World Liberty's USD1. The sources reviewed do not explicitly tie Stablecoin Holdco to USD1.

POTENTIAL VIOLATION

No legal question has been raised by anyone with standing or expertise in the sources reviewed, so this field is left blank rather than supplied by the ledger.

THEIR RESPONSE

The White House says there are no conflicts of interest.
